January 2025 Seminar

Join us January 18th for a seminar and our meeting. We will be meeting at Stack's Taxidermy at 9am for a seminar on Horned Animal Highlights- secrets to horned animals by Scott Brassfield and Home Tanning by Cory Hammet, the meeting will follow. We will have lunch and drinks. Please bring a chair.

Updates from the August Meeting

During the August meeting we discussed some upcoming changes. We will be splitting the secretary and treasurer positions. Dawn Stacks will sit as treasurer until a vote can be put forth for the position. We are looking into changing locations for the 2025 convention and show. Scott is working on moving to a new spot in Columbia. In 2025 we will be offering a fully online registration option. This will help make the registration and checkin process move faster and prevent errors. We filled open board positions as well.

MoVets

At the 2024 convention we got to work with the great team at MoVets. They are doing great things in bringing conservation and the great outdoors to those who have given so much to our country. We would like to use our spring seminar time to dedicate talents of our awesome members to putting together mounts for some of their participants. Please be thinking of how you can get involved and what you are willing to do to be a part of this great program.
